Are you satisfied with the education your son is receiving? You know his needs and must decide whether his time is being spent to advantage. He may be capable of advancing in his studies more rapidly than the strict grading in the public school will permit. He may be required to lose a year, because he is backward in one study. In the MONTCLAIR MILITARY ACADEMY classes are small, cadets receive individual attention impossible in large schools, and a cadet is not kept back in one subject because he is deficient in another. Visit the school and inspect the work for yourself.
